THE TRULY WISE MAN

THE truly wise man is usually he who profits by another man's experience. Such a man starts everything he undertakes with a long handicap over his fellows.

¶ If you should ask any experienced lawyer "What is the most valuable set of law-books published in the last twenty years?" the chances are a hundred to one he would say, without hesitation, "The Lawyers' Reports Annotated." Ask him.

¶ Many an older and wiser lawyer has in the last few years expressed great regret that he did not realize the coming value of "L. R. A." when it was begun eighteen years ago, as by subscribing then he would have avoided the burden of purchasing a large number of back volumes at once.

¶ We are now beginning a New Series, following Volume 70 First Series, containing 75 per cent. more matter each year than formerly, and with every case annotated,—at the same time a reduction of $1.00 per volume in price.

¶ If you are wise you will enter your subscription at once to Lawyers' Reports Annotated, New Series, only $4.00 per volume. It is an opportunity which has not come before in nearly twenty years—to start on such a set with no expense for back volumes,—and may never come again.

¶ When you get ready you can put in L. R. A. 1-70 First Series. In the meantime have the value of current volumes and don't get behind.

¶ Sample pages and further descriptive matter sent on request. Also send for our 200 page topical index of text work, "Where to Look for the Law."
